

441—57.6(249) Notice of interim assistance reimbursement eligibility and accountability. The Social Security Administration will forward to the county Form SSA-8125, Supplemental Security Income Notice of Interim Assistance Reimbursement, indicating the disposition of the individual's SSI claim (i.e., denial or allowance). This form also provides the county agency with a method of accounting on an individual case basis for the disposition of interim assistance reimbursement funds received from the Social Security Administration. The county agency will receive Form SSA-8125 on every case where the individual has signed an interim assistance authorization and the authorization is processed by the Social Security Administration prior to a final determination on SSI eligibility.
